Welcome to Planet Monsters world Championship !

Some years ago, a huge comet collided with the Sun. As a result, man disappeared from Earth, along with all human technology and scientific knowledge : all human beings started mutating, and our planet is now populated by warlike and uncontrollable mutants. In order to bring order back on Earth, the Universal Society decided to organize a new competition. Fighting arenas were built all over our globe, and the Planet Monsters now use to fight there one against another. There's only one rule : be the last one standing no matter what...

b) Insert your "Planet Monsters" Game Pak with the sticker facing outward.
c) Switch POWER ON
d) Press START to start playing, as soon as the main screen appears.
e) Select the language you want with the Control Pad.
f) If you want to charge a saved game, chose the SINGLE mode, then one of the planet monsters.
Then, select PASSWORD and enter your password.
